Largely Increased

Jacket, Suit, Waist and Skirt
Selling in the Ready-Made Dept.

The rush of customer continues throughout the entire day—must be other than mere price reasons for such extensive selling.

Perhaps It's

owing to the fact that there's a more graceful "swing" to the skirts—a jauntier "cut" to the jackets—more of true "dressiness" to the waists—perhaps to a larger range of colorings and styles; an ensemble irresistibly attractive to good dressers.

Even Dressing Sacques and tea gowns have attained an exalted position. Styles and fabrics unknown to other seasons are wrapped up in this year's exquisite creations. The price range is large and reasonable.

MAJORITY OF 2,600

For Captain Dovenor is Predicted by Chairman Smith.

THESE ARE MINIMUM FIGURES

AND IT IS BELIEVED THE MAJORITY WILL BE LARGER IF THE REPUBLICANS DO THEIR EN-TIRE DUTY—MAJORITY FOR THE SEVERAL COUNTIES OF THE DISTRICT ESTIMATED BY THE CHAIRMAN—MR. POST'S CLAIMS.

"The Democrats will not be in it this election in the First congressional district," said Chairman S. G. Smith, of the First district Republican congressional committee, at midnight. "The conditions indicate a possible slump in the vote of both parties and that each will have about the same ratio of loss. This district contains 24,000 Republicans and 22,500 Democrats and doubtful voters. The Democratic vote will certainly be less than 20,000, probably as low as 17,000 or 18,000, while the Republicans will exceed 21,000 in the district. It is my opinion that we can lose 6,000 by stay-at-home voters and still win by 2,000. If there should be a general landslide it will help us as it always has heretofore helped Captain Dovenor. In 1894 he had a plurality of 4,400, and in 1896 a majority of 1,750 in this district. Both these years were land-slides in West Virginia, so that a normal majority of 2,600 is a fair estimate for this district in an off year. We are well organized throughout the district and will win hands down."

In support of his claims, Mr. Smith gave the following estimated majorities in the eleven counties making up the First district:

Counties	Rep.	Dem.
Hancock	250	.....
Brooke	175	.....
Ohio	1,500	.....
Marshall	1,100	.....
Wetzel	800	.....
Harrison	300	.....
Doddridge	450	.....
Gilmer	400	.....
Lewis	150	.....
Tyler	500	.....
Braxton	500	.....
Totals	4,325	1,700
Republican majority, 2,625.

Mr. Post's Claims.

In an interview last night, Chairman M. D. Post, of the Democratic congressional committee, said he anticipated a tidal wave that would land the Democratic victor in this district. He says two to five Republicans in each voting precinct are opposed to Captain Dovenor. Again, he says the people of West Virginia are opposed to imperialism. After throwing bouquets at himself for the thorough organization he alleges is had by the Democracy in the district, he claims the full Democratic vote will be out to-day. Continuing he alleges Republicans will attempt to vote colonists in Ohio and other counties, and asserts every such voter will be prosecuted. "I am convinced that the election in this district will be close. Will make very heavy gains in the Democratic counties of Braxton, Gilmer and Wetzel. We will carry Lewis county by a comfortable majority. The Republican majority in Harrison and Doddridge counties will be small. It is more than probable that Mr. Blair will come very near carrying the county of Tyler. Mr. Dovenor will lose heavily in Marshall. He will lose heavily in Ohio county, if the election is clear of frauds. He will lose in Hancock. I think, on the whole, Captain Dovenor is meeting his Waterloo."

THE GIBNEYS.

It required just three-quarters of an hour to dispose of all the reserved seats yesterday morning, and it was less than half an hour after the doors of the Grand were thrown open when the "standing room only" sign was hung out last night. The attraction was the Gibneys and the Hoefler Stock Company, who produced an engagement of a solid week, producing as the first attraction the beautiful pastoral drama "Angie the Country Girl." The comedy was staged in a very satisfactory manner, it was admirably cast, and the specialties which were introduced between acts were all of a very high order. Daily matinees will begin to-day. The bill for this afternoon and evening will be the stirring melodrama, "A Life for a Life." To-night election returns will be read from the stage, Manager Feinler having arranged for a special wire.

THE Wheeling Bakery's immense big loaves results in largely increased sale of this elegant bread. Do you buy it from your grocer?
